TO MY FRIENDS AND ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
In consequence of advanced age and impaired health I have this day retired from business and sold my entire business heretofore conducted by me at 1427 East Main Street, Richmond, Va., under the firm name of John H. Rose & Co., of which I was the sole owner, to my son Charles Rose, who for several years past has practically conducted the said business for me.

The said Charles Rose will conduct the said business under the old name of John H. Rose & Co., and will assume all the debts and obligations of the said business from this date.

For forty years I have conducted the said business, meeting promptly all of my obligations, and in retiring I wish to thank my patrons and the public for their generous support, and to commend to them my son; who is in every way competent to conduct the said business, meating promptly all species of the said business and pay off all obligations of the said suspenses now due, or that may hereafter become due.

Respectfully, April 8th, 1866.

Referring to the above I desire to say

April 8th, 1966.

Referring to the above I desire to say that I have this day purchased the entire business of John H. Rose, trading as John II. Rose & Co., with the right to use the old name, which will be done, and have assumed uil the debts and obligations of the said John H. Rose, contracted in said business. With an experience of more than afteen years in said business, and in the entire management of the said business for the past seven years, I feel that I am fully able to conduct the said business, and I cordially solicit the patronage of the old customers of my father as well as the public in general.
